

Ministry of Social Development and Poverty Reduction Port Alberni (On-Site)

The Service Delivery Division provides a flexible work environment with many unique benefits, including a scheduled day off every two weeks. An eligibility list may be established for future temporary and/or permanent vacancies.

Community Integration Specialist $64,123.59 - $72,674.35 annually

The Ministry of Social Development and Poverty Reduction is proud to be an equal opportunity employer; we strive to ensure all employees contribute in meaningful ways, bring their full self to work and celebrate their differences. The ministry focuses on reducing poverty, creating opportunities and increasing inclusion.

The Service Delivery Division provides income and disability assistance services online, by phone, or face to face in our communities. We strive to ensure our services are reliable, responsive, inclusive and accessible to all British Columbians who need our support.

Community Integration Specialists work in community 80-85% of their scheduled work week using in-reach and outreach approaches to connect individuals with services. This includes providing income assistance and helping navigate multiple services and systems for individuals who may be experiencing homelessness, and be suffering from trauma, mental illness and addiction issues.

The BC Public Service is committed to creating a diverse workplace to represent the population we serve and to better meet the needs of our citizens. Consider joining our team and being part of an innovative, inclusive and rewarding workplace.
