

Electronic Equipment Technician and Dockside Validator Ucluelet, BC

Do you want to help look after our ocean resources? Like to climb trees and dream of climbing the mast of a ship?

We are seeking a dependable and detail-oriented individual to support the delivery of our groundfish dockside monitoring programs in Ucluelet, BC. No fisheries experience required.

This role involves assisting with land-based dockside and electronic monitoring activities associated with commercial fisheries. Hours of work may vary and can include early mornings, evenings, and weekends, depending on vessel schedules.

All required training and certifications will be provided and fully paid.

You will be trained to:

- Monitor and document the offload activities of groundfish commercial fishing vessels.
- Install, maintain, and troubleshoot a variety of Electronic Monitoring (EM) equipment such as cameras, control systems, GPS receivers, hydraulic pressure sensors and rotation sensors on board commercial fishing vessels.
- Perform biological sampling and recording of selected species.
- Assist at offloads with piece counting and halibut tagging.
- Produce and assemble basic EM parts and equipment.
- Maintain a working knowledge of Archipelago's EM equipment and practices.
- Assist in maintenance and management of EM inventory.
- Work with skippers and vessel crew on a regular basis to help them understand and maintain their EM systems.

You will need:

- Computer savvy, comfortable navigating applications on phone, tablet, and computer.
- Interest in learning to work on electronic monitoring equipment systems and a mechanical aptitude with some experience with hand tools and a basic understanding of electrical circuits.
- Valid BC Driver's License (or equivalent to) and a reliable vehicle to get yourself to work.
- The job is physically demanding, and candidates should be capable of lifting heavy equipment (<50 pounds) and climb ladders up to 25 feet on fishing vessels.
- To complete this training, you will become dockside certified through Archipelago and need to be able to complete a criminal record check.

This position is well suited to individuals seeking variable or part-time work, including those with other commitments, people returning to the workforce, career-changers, or anyone looking to supplement their income with meaningful, community-based work.

Starting wage is $20.81 per hour, plus an additional 8.2% paid out on each pay cheque in lieu of paid holidays and statutory pay ($22.52 per hour equivalent). Minimum 4-hour callout on all days worked. Benefits after the probationary period include a Health Spending Account and an Employee and Family Assistance Program.

Archipelago works to provide an inclusive, fair, and equitable working environment for staff of all backgrounds. Regardless of your race, religion, sex, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, nation of origin, disability or age, if you share our values surrounding the careful management of our ocean resources, we welcome your unique contributions and perspectives.
