

Calling all Tutors!

Literacy Alberni is now hiring qualified tutors in all subject areas within both the elementary and secondary school curriculum. Currently, we are experiencing a high demand for both elementary and secondary upper-level Math and Science support, and English/Language Arts tutors, but we are also accepting applications for other subjects.

We are inviting all applicants with teaching expertise and qualifications. Preference will be given to applicants with teaching certifications, but equivalent experience and qualifications will be considered. Mandatory criminal check.
