Duties and Responsibilities:

In-Section Support

- Provide essential Scouting materials and resources to new Sections and Section Scouters.
- Offer enhanced coaching to Section Scouters to improve the delivery of Scouts Canada's program and promote youth-led programming.
- Ensure Section Scouters have access to learning opportunities that enhance their ability to deliver Scouting programs by implementing experiential learning or "learn by doing" for youth.

Drive Outdoor Adventure

- Share a passion for the outdoors and assist sections in attaining new challenges.
- Support Sections and their Scouters with weekly outdoor activities that enhance outdoor skills and competencies.
- Coordinate Outdoor Adventure Skills with local third-party partners and resources.
- Support Sections and their Scouters on weekend adventures to Scouts Canada Properties and other outdoor destinations.
- Provide essential camping equipment to Section Scouters.
- Other duties: as a non-profit organization with a small team, there may be occasions where other responsibilities or projects are assigned.

Competencies Required:

- High School Diploma
- Proven experience planning engaging programming for youth.
- Experience facilitating basic outdoor adventure skills training is an asset.
