

Shelter Farm is Hiring a Youth Farm Hand!

Job Description: Shelter Farm is a Social Enterprise Market Garden for the Port Alberni Shelter Society. We grow vegetables and fruit for markets, as well as for distribution to local community organizations. As a general farm laborer, you will work with our team of staff and volunteers to plant, harvest and care for our vegetable crops. Duties include weeding, shoveling, wheelbarrowing, seeding, harvesting, planting, weed-eating, mowing, and other basic farm chores. We work early mornings in the summer (be prepared for 6am start times) to beat the heat of the afternoon.

We are hiring for one youth (age 15-30) for three weeks, with the possibility for extension if it's a good fit.

Qualifications: No experience necessary, but must be able to lift 40 lbs and work outside in all conditions. Must have raingear and a vehicle to get out to the farm.

Wage: $17.40
