Spotlight on Services

➤ Trades Training

Ever considered a career in the trades? The need for skilled tradespeople in B.C. is increasing, along with exciting, well-paid, employment opportunities. To work as a certified tradesperson, you need training combined with job experience. Trades training typically takes between one to five years. Most apprenticeship programs take four years. The technical training takes place in a classroom or shop setting at a public institution such as a college or institute, or at an approved private training institution. To earn your “ticket” as a certified tradesperson in B.C., you must:

the technical training takes place in a classroom or shop setting at a public institution such as a college or institute, or at an approved private training institution. To earn your “ticket” as a certified tradesperson in B.C., you must:

- Complete the required on-the-job hours and the in-school training
- Pass the examinations
- Earn the recommendation of your sponsoring employer.

Getting Started: To learn about the variety of options available and get started on a path to a career in the trades, visit workbc.ca.

- Job start supports: WorkBC can provide financial supports to eligible clients beginning a new job when they do not have the financial means to cover incremental costs before receiving a paycheque from a new job. Financial supports range in amount and can help cover expenses for essential work clothing and equipment, transportation, dependent care, licensing and hygiene supports. Clients should request financial supports prior to starting a new job and will undergo a financial needs assessment with a WorkBC Employment Counsellor.
