Spotlight on Services

➤ Skills Enhancement Training

Services: Skills Enhancement Training Services assist eligible clients to obtain the skills necessary to obtain employment through participation in training that may range from Adult Basic Education and Academic Upgrading to Occupational Skills Training and Short Duration Training. Training may be delivered by either a public training institute or an accredited private training institute. Eligible case-managed clients can also receive financial supports to assist their training needs.

Getting Started: The first step is to make an appointment with one of our Employment Counsellors to confirm your eligibility. Give us a call at 250-724-4560 (Port Alberni), 250-725-8805 (Tofino), 250-726-4243 (Ucluelet).

➤ Wage Subsidy: WorkBC's Wage Subsidy service is designed to assist job seekers to gain work experience and learn new skills, by providing a financial incentive for employers to provide on-the-job training. Wage subsidy participants must be unemployed or underemployed (working less than 20 hours a week).

Recent changes to the WorkBC wage subsidy service were made to allow more individuals to access the service. Employees who were previously laid off from a position are now able to be recalled by their employer using a wage subsidy. The Wage Subsidy service can be accessed through two separate avenues: A WorkBC Match Wage Subsidy occurs when a WorkBC case managed client is identified by the contractor as an appropriate candidate to refer to a potential wage subsidy position; or an Employer Identified Wage Subsidy occurs when an eligible employer identifies an individual as suitable for a potential Wage Subsidy position.

Getting Started: Visit workbc.ca to find the online employer application. If you are a job seeker, you can talk to a potential employer about wage subsidy and suggest they apply or apply for WorkBC Employment Services and explore if a wage subsidy opportunity is a good fit for you.

For more information visit call our Wage Subsidy Coordinator at 250-724-4560 ext. 234.
