Spotlight on Services

➤ Assistive Technology Services: Assistive Technology Services provide equipment and devices to help individuals thrive in the workplace. Supports available through Assistive Technology Services include: assistive devices, equipment and technology, ergonomic supports, restorative supports, communication and hearing devices related to work, workplace access and modification and vehicle modifications. Assistive Technology Services are available to individuals who have a work-related barrier due to a disability or a functional limitation.

Getting Started: Call one of our WorkBC Centres to make an appointment with an Employment Counsellor and check your eligibility for Assistive Technology Services. Port Alberni – 250-724-4560, Ucluelet - 250-726-4243 or Tofino - 250-725-8805.

➤ Wage Subsidy: WorkBC's Wage Subsidy service is designed to assist job seekers to gain work experience and learn new skills, by providing a financial incentive for employers to provide on-the-job training.

Wage subsidy participants must be unemployed or underemployed (working less than 20 hours a week).

Recent changes to the WorkBC wage subsidy service were made to allow more individuals to access the service.

Employees who were previously laid off from a position are now able to be recalled by their employer using a wage subsidy. The Wage Subsidy service can be accessed through two separate avenues: A WorkBC Match Wage Subsidy occurs when a WorkBC case managed client is identified by the contractor as an appropriate candidate to refer to a potential wage subsidy position; or an Employer Identified Wage Subsidy occurs when an eligible employer identifies an individual as suitable for a potential Wage Subsidy position.

Getting Started: Visit workbc.ca to find the online employer application. If you are a job seeker, you can talk to a potential employer about wage subsidy and suggest they apply or apply for WorkBC Employment Services and explore if a wage subsidy opportunity is a good fit for you.

For more information visit call our Wage Subsidy Coordinator at 250-724-4560 ext. 225.
