Become a guide to discovery

Join us at the Amphitrite House Interpretive Centre, a new visitor hub located along the iconic Wild Pacific Trail overlooking the rugged outer coast of Vancouver Island.

Originally built as a lightkeeper's residence near Amphitrite Point Lighthouse, the house now serves as an interpretive space where visitors can learn about the natural and cultural history of the Ucluelet coastline.

We are seeking a friendly, confident individual who enjoys connecting with people and sharing knowledge about the natural world.

The Role

As a Wild Pacific Trail Ambassador, you will:

- Welcome visitors to the Interpretive Centre and provide orientation to the Wild Pacific Trail
- Answer visitor questions and share knowledge about the area
- Provide information about local flora, fauna, and natural history
- Assist with interpretive displays and educational materials
- Manage a small selection of merchandise sales at the interpretive desk

Skills and Assets

We are looking for someone who is:

- A confident public speaker who enjoys engaging with visitors
- Knowledgeable about local flora and fauna, or eager to learn
- Comfortable speaking with the public and sharing information clearly
- Able to work independently with minimal supervision
- Comfortable standing for extended periods of time (required)
- Reliable and professional

Assets include:

- Previous experience in customer service, tourism, interpretation, or volunteer roles
- Knowledge of attractions, events, and tourism experiences in the Ucluelet and West Coast region

Why This Role is Unique

- Work in one of the most scenic coastal locations on Vancouver Island
- Gain experience in interpretation and visitor engagement
- Develop public speaking and storytelling skills
- Connect with visitors from around the world
- Be part of sharing the natural and cultural history of the West Coast

Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion

The Wild Pacific Trail Society is committed to creating a safe, welcoming, and inclusive environment for all visitors and staff. We encourage applications from individuals of all backgrounds, including BIPOC, 2SLGBTQI+ individuals, and persons with disabilities.

Please note:

- The Saturday and Sunday schedule is fixed and not subject to negotiation.
- Housing is not provided for this position.
- Vacation pay will be paid out, rather than accrued as banked vacation time.
- This position is offered as a one-year fixed-term contract beginning on the start date, with the possibility of renewal subject to funding availability.

How to Apply

Please send a resume and cover letter to:
